

International Taxation & Cross-Border Tax

Due to the complexity and ever-changing nature of tax laws, an informed tax analysis is a critical element in providing effective legal service. The Aird & Berlis International Tax Group has a wealth of experience in cross-border transactions and is committed to providing clients with creative, comprehensive, practical and current advice.

We will provide your organization with counsel on the tax-advantaged structuring of all types of transactions, and work closely with our Corporate/Commercial, Capital Markets and Real Estate groups to ensure that all business transactions and arrangements produce the most favourable tax and commercial results possible. We act for international entities doing business in Canada and Canadian entities doing business abroad.
