

Mediation/Arbitration Services

Working with a third-party mediator or arbitrator is often the most appropriate means to the best and most cost-efficient end. In addition to representing clients in alternative dispute resolution matters, members of our team also provide mediation and arbitration services.

Our skilled mediators and arbitrators bring the necessary neutral skills and business expertise to support both public and private organizations that recognize the value of mediation and arbitration as viable alternatives to litigation.

Regularly retained by clients and other law firms, our professionals have served as mediators or arbitrators in hundreds of disputes across various areas, including:

- > Construction
- > Corporate and commercial
- > Shareholder and partnership
- > Insurance
- > Commodity tax
- > Estates
- > Employment
- > Real estate
- > Personal injury

As mediators, we excel at developing effective communications and building consensus to arrive at common sense, business-minded solutions that are acceptable by all parties.

As arbitrators, we employ a judicious and efficient approach which leads to reasoned and proportionate results and a timely process.
