

PUBLISHED JUNE 2009

Includes important updates that impact:

- the payment of dividends vs. retention of income at the corporate levels
- tax-effective buyout structuring
- the role of holding companies

A solid foundation for smart agreements.

A practical review of the key requirements for sound and effective shareholders' agreements.

The best-selling Shareholders' Agreements: A Tax and Legal Guide is a practical, easy-to-read reference guide to the major business, financial, and tax considerations involved when structuring shareholders' agreements.

The 3rd Edition contains important changes in tax legislation and common legal precedents relating to:

- Non-competition agreements
- New dividend taxation rules
- Enhanced GAAR discussion with comments on recent Supreme Court of Canada decisions
- New issues on share purchase on death
- Increased lifetime SBC capital gains deduction
- Non-resident vendors/purchasers

Shareholders' agreements are an integral part of business succession and estate planning. With our aging population, it's more important than ever that you be prepared to address your clients' questions with the most up-to-date information.

Written by the tax and corporate finance experts at Aird & Berlis LLP, this guide integrates the technical expertise of the Tax Group with the strategic savvy of the Corporate Finance Group to provide the tools needed to structure cohesive and solid agreements.

BONUS DVD includes sample agreements with variable clauses to get you started. Simply cut and paste the applicable sections into your own agreements and adapt the content to your needs.
